A lawsuit has been started against you. You have been or will be served with a Summons and Complaint. If the plaintiff is successful, or you do not respond in time, you could end up owing money to the plaintiff, even though, if you are the debtor in the related case, you may have received a discharge. You should consult your attorney as soon as possible, unless you wish to represent yourself.

If you are unable to afford an attorney, you may contact:

Volunteer Attorney Program
Consumer Credit Advocacy Project
(218) 723-4005

You will be screened for eligibility and if it is determined that you are eligible, an attorney may be found who will represent you without payment of attorney's fees. You are encouraged to contact Volunteer Attorney Program as soon as possible after receiving this notice.

You may also obtain bankruptcy related advice through the Consumer Credit Advocacy Project, a free service open to all individuals, without regard to income eligibility. Minnesota residents can receive up to 15 minutes of basic information and advice from a bankruptcy attorney. The volunteer attorney can review the complaint, explain laws and procedures, and talk about your legal options. The clinic is available on a monthly basis in Duluth. For defendants residing in Benton, Koochiching, Mille Lacs & Morrison counties, please refer to the Minneapolis and St. Paul Bankruptcy Clinics. For more information and a complete schedule, see www.mnb.uscourts.gov.
